

EXHIBIT C RWS ACCEPTABLE USAGE POLICY FOR VENDORS

This ACCEPTABLE USAGE POLICY ("AUP") defines the responsibilities and conduct of both RWS and a Vendor or any other third party in relation to data, systems and tools provided by RWS for the use of Vendor when providing Services to RWS under RWS Terms and Conditions for Vendors. RWS is committed to facilitating communication between its employees and Vendors. To this end RWS makes certain data, systems and tools available for use by a Vendor, which may include software, hardware, e-mail or other such tool ("Resources"). It is RWS's policy that these provided Resources are used for the stated purposes only and not for use outside of providing Services by Vendors or for personal use.

All capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meaning set forth in the RWS Terms and Conditions for Vendors.

This AUP has been formulated with the following goals in mind:

- Ensure the security, reliability and privacy of RWS's systems and network, and the networks and systems of others.
- Avoid situations that may cause RWS to incur civil and / or criminal liability.
- Maintain the image and reputation of RWS.
- Encourage the responsible use of Resources.
- Preserve the privacy, confidentiality, integrity and availability of RWS Clients' property and communications.

The core principle of RWS's AUP is that no one shall use the Resources provided by RWS for any activity which contravenes the governing laws or any other applicable jurisdiction, or to create, host, download or transmit offensive or obscene material.

Accordingly, Vendors may not use RWS's Resources to engage in activities that:

- Infringe on the IPR of others.
- Violate the proprietary or licensing rights of any software or application.
- Compromise the privacy of others.
- Negatively impact the confidentiality, availability or integrity of RWS or RWS Client information.

RWS reserves the right to take such action, as it deems in its absolute discretion to be reasonable and appropriate, including but not limited to contract termination, against Vendors who violate any conditions of this AUP.

General Policy

1. RWS grants Vendors restricted access to RWS Resources. By using the RWS Resources, Vendors agree to comply with the policies and procedures in this AUP and Annex 1. Vendors are responsible for any violations of the use of RWS Resources by them.
2. Permitted Use. Vendor will be granted access to specific RWS Systems for the purpose of providing the contracted services to RWS ("Purpose"). The RWS Systems will be used in compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, codes of conduct, guidelines, directions, policies and/or other requirements including, without limitation, all applicable state, federal, national, and international internet, data, telecommunications, marketing, telemarketing, “spam,” and import/export laws, regulations and procedures adopted from time to time. Vendor acknowledges that by providing access to RWS System, RWS is acting as a passive conduit for Vendors activities and RWS is not undertaking any obligation or liability to Vendor in relation to Vendor’s activities. In this AUP RWS System means any information technology application or process made available to Vendor, including but not limited to: RWS SharePoint, a RWS email account, RWS Vendor Management System and an RWS translation and or translation management application.

3. Monitoring. RWS may elect at its sole discretion to monitor where legally allowed, Vendor’s use of some or all areas of RWS’s network and services for adherence to these rules or other RWS rules that may be published from time to time and to fulfil complaint or investigation requirements. RWS reserves the right to grant others, such as RWS Clients, third party IT providers, regulators and law enforcement access to Vendor’s RWS System access account and activity log.
4. Filters. RWS reserves the right in its reasonable discretion to install and use, or upon written agreement by the Vendor to have Vendor install and use, any appropriate devices to prevent violations of this AUP, including devices designated to filter or terminate access.
5. Prohibited Use. Without limiting the restrictions set forth in Section 2 of this AUP, Vendor agrees not to use RWS Systems for any illegal, fraudulent, unauthorized or improper manner or purpose or to transmit or disseminate any:
 - a. junk mail, spam, or unsolicited material to persons or entities that have not agreed to receive such material;
 - b. material that infringes or violates any third party’s IPR, rights of publicity, privacy, or confidentiality, or the rights or legal obligations of any wireless service provider or any of its customers or subscribers;
 - c. material or data, that is illegal, or material or data, that is harassing, coercive, defamatory, libellous, abusive, threatening, obscene, or otherwise objectionable, materials that are harmful to minors or excessive in quantity, or materials the transmission of which could diminish or harm the reputation of RWS or any third-party service provider involved in the provision of any services to RWS;
 - d. viruses, DDoS attacks, Trojan horses, worms, time bombs, cancelbots, or other computer programming routines that are intended to damage, detrimentally interfere with, surreptitiously or openly intercept or expropriate any system, data, or personal information;
 - e. material or information that is false, misleading, or inaccurate; and
 - f. material that would expose RWS, any third-party service provider involved in providing services to RWS, or any other third party to liability.
6. Access Restriction. Vendor must not attempt to access any data or programs contained in RWS Systems for which Vendor does not have authorization or explicit consent. Vendor may not attempt to gain unauthorized access to, or attempt to interfere with or compromise the normal functioning, operation or security of, any portion of the RWS Systems or information technology network or attempt to gain unauthorized access to the user accounts or passwords of others. Vendor must not download, install or run security programs or utilities that reveal or exploit weaknesses in the security of RWS Systems or information technology network. Vendor must not purposely engage in activity that may: harass, threaten or abuse others; degrade the performance of RWS Systems and related information technology network; deprive an authorized RWS user access to RWS Systems; obtain extra resources beyond those allocated; or circumvent RWS System security measures.

7. Ownership of Files or Materials. Electronic files and materials of any nature created, sent, received, or stored on RWS Systems are owned, leased, administered, or otherwise under the custody and control of RWS are the property of RWS, or customers of RWS, and are private and may only be accessed by Vendor to perform the Purpose. For the avoidance of doubt Vendor does not obtain any ownership rights to the files / materials and / or their contents.
8. Confidentiality. Any data used in RWS Systems must be kept confidential and secure by Vendor. The fact that the data may be stored electronically does not change the requirement to keep the information confidential and secure. Furthermore, if this data is stored in a paper or electronic format, or if the data is copied, printed, or electronically transmitted the data must still be protected as confidential and secured.
9. Personal Data. The personal data Vendor provides to RWS, name, email address etc., will be used by RWS to provide Vendor with access to RWS Systems and in the administration of Vendor's use of RWS Systems, and Vendor consents to such processing by continuing with the engagement with RWS. In order for RWS to perform its proper operations, it may be necessary for RWS to transfer, process and store personal data outside of the EU, EEA or UK, and RWS shall enter into appropriate arrangements to ensure the adequacy of the security of such data. Vendor is required to comply with all applicable Data Protection laws when using RWS Systems for the transfer of personal data. In the event Vendor receives any requests or communication from data subjects, data protection authorities, or other law enforcement authorities in respect of personal data processed in connection with Vendor's use of RWS Systems, Vendor will notify RWS within 24 hours of receiving such request or communication, unless prohibited by law from doing so.
10. No sharing. Vendor may not execute on RWS Systems any script, application or program that makes the RWS Systems available to others. Vendor may not execute such scripts, applications or programs on their own machines connected to the RWS Systems in order to make services or Resources available to others. For the avoidance of doubt, RWS expressly confirms that Vendor is allowed to make their own content available to others, as long as that content is compliant with this AUP.
11. Privacy. RWS makes no guarantee and assumes no liability for, the security and integrity of any content or information, including personal data, that Vendor transmits via any third party system over which RWS has no control.
12. Software License. The RWS Systems include third party software products governed by applicable software license agreements that specifically describes the usage rights and restrictions of the product. Vendor must abide by all license agreements and must not illegally copy licensed software.

13. Security Responsibilities of Vendor. Vendor is responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of password and account information, and security of their network / IT equipment. Vendor agrees to immediately notify RWS, but within 24 hours, of any unauthorized use of RWS System resources or any other breach of security known to Vendor or reasonably suspected by Vendor. This includes extortion threats that involve threat of “denial of service” attacks, unauthorized access, or other security events. If Vendor becomes aware of any violation of this Policy by any person, Vendor is required to notify RWS immediately, but no longer than 24 hours after discovery of the violation. Vendor must install and maintain a reputable anti-virus software, which MUST be updated at least weekly or whenever provider of anti-virus software provides updates, on any PC, laptop or tablet operated and maintained by Vendor.
14. Violation. In the event of a breach of or failure to comply with this AUP by Vendor, RWS expressly reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to pursue any remedies that RWS believes are needed, which may include, but are not limited to, immediate suspension or termination of the provision of the access to the RWS Systems. Such actions may be taken by RWS without prior notice to Vendor. If RWS deems that the non-compliance is not caused by Vendor, no remedies will be imposed on Vendor and all remedies already imposed on Vendor will be lifted.
15. Indemnification. Vendor will indemnify, defend and hold RWS and its Affiliates harmless against any claim, suit or proceeding made against RWS arising from use by Vendor of the RWS Systems which violates applicable law, or infringes or misappropriates a third party’s IPR and will pay any costs, damages and reasonable attorneys’ fees attributable to such claim that are awarded against RWS.
16. Disclosure. RWS will cooperate with appropriate law enforcement agencies and other parties involved in investigating claims of illegal or inappropriate activity. RWS reserves the right to disclose Vendor information to the extent authorized by applicable law. By using RWS Systems, Vendor consents to RWS’s disclosure to any law enforcement agency, without the need for subpoena, of Vendor’s identity (including basic contact information).
17. Complaints. In most cases, RWS will notify Vendor of complaints received by RWS regarding an alleged violation of this AUP. Once notified by RWS, Vendor agrees to promptly investigate all such complaints and take all necessary actions to remedy any violations of this Policy. RWS may inform the complainant that Vendor is investigating the complaint and may provide the complainant with the necessary information to contact Vendor directly to resolve the complaint.
18. Modifications to Policy. This AUP may be changed by RWS upon thirty (30) days prior written notice.
19. Additional Terms and Conditions. The use of the RWS Systems by Vendor is subject to the Terms and Conditions for Vendors.

ANNEX 1

PASSWORD SECURITY – APPLICABLE TO ALL APPLICATIONS AND PROCESSES

All passwords must adhere to the following standards:

1. Passwords should not contain the user's account name or parts of the user's full name that exceed two consecutive characters
2. Passwords should avoid incorporating personal data elements (e.g., date of birth, address, telephone number, or social security number; names of children or spouses; favourite band, sports team, or automobile; or other personal attribute)
3. Passwords must be changed at least every 90 days
4. Passwords must be a minimum of 14 characters long
5. Passwords must not be reused or recycled.
6. Passwords must not be disclosed to anyone else, including RWS personnel
7. Passwords must not be written down at any time
8. All default vendor provided and installation passwords provided with new hardware or software applications must be immediately reset after installation is complete
9. Passwords must contain characters from at least three of the following categories:
 - a. Capital letters
 - b. Lowercase letters
 - c. Numbers
 - d. Special characters (~@!#$%^&* -+=\`()\|'"}[]:;<>.,?/)

RWS SHAREPOINT

RWS may grant Vendor access to RWS SharePoint. By using the RWS SharePoint, Vendor agrees to register access with Microsoft and accept their terms and conditions of use. In addition, Vendor is required to accept the RWS AUP to use RWS SharePoint.

Vendor will be granted access to specific RWS SharePoint sites by the RWS SharePoint Administrator (means the RWS user(s) responsible for the administration of the RWS SharePoint site) or Site Administrator (means the RWS user(s) responsible for maintaining content, structure and permissions on an individual subsite) to enable sharing of RWS Documents and collaboration on their development.

Microsoft License: the RWS SharePoint resource is governed by a Microsoft software license agreement that specifically describes the usage rights and restrictions of the product. Vendor must abide by all Microsoft license agreements and must not illegally copy licensed software.

RWS EMAIL ACCOUNT

RWS may issue to Vendor an RWS email account or email address exclusively for the provision of Services to RWS and / or a RWS Client.

Any email transmitted or received using RWS's email system is the sole property of RWS. RWS reserves the right to grant others access to Vendor's email without notification and reserves the right to monitor content of any email transmitted using RWS Systems.

Vendors using the RWS email system must:

1. Take necessary steps to protect confidentiality. All email users will be issued with a password which should be changed at regular intervals and remain confidential to the user. Vendors must not share passwords, leave passwords lying around in plain text, or otherwise compromise the security of any email accounts. Vendors must not share passwords with anyone or allow anyone else to use the RWS email account or email address.
2. Ensure proper consideration is given to the content of emails, information should be clear and to the point and communicated in an appropriate "tone".
3. Be aware of the increasing security threats to information technology. Every day more sophisticated email threats arise designed to obtain credentials, personal data and valuable intellectual property. There are steps that Vendors can take to reduce the risk of being a victim of a malicious email threat:
 - a. Do not open or forward emails which are suspected as being spam;
 - b. Do not open attachments from unknown sources;
 - c. Do not respond to a message from an unknown source and do not click on any embedded links.

RWS VENDOR MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

RWS may issue to Vendor a username and an initial use password to access the RWS Vendor Management System. The password must be changed upon first login, and in accordance with the standards in this AUP. Vendor is responsible for accuracy of any personal data they can access on the RWS Vendor Management System and for ensuring information requested is up to date.
